'I suppose you would be telling the truth if you were to call me a transvestite. You see, I really enjoy dressing up in three-piece suits, ties, blazers and flannels, sports jackets and mens' shoes. I'm not "butch" – or so my guy assures me – I just like the style. 'That's not to say that I don't wear the more conventional ladies wear – I have loads of skimpy, lacy, frilly things. ♣

Russ Meyer's

Beneath the valley of the ultra VIXENS

STARRING

Francesca Kitten Natividad

Francesca 'Kitten' Natividad, born in Juarez, Mexico and reared in El Paso, Texas. This 'Tex Mex' is the buxom star of Russ Meyer's Beneath the Valley of the Ultravixens. For openers, Kitten was an ROTC major at her El Paso high school, attaining the rank of cadet/captain. Could it be she resigned because of the ever increasing problem of keeping her military blouse buttoned? La Natividad's famed 'Bikini Walks' throughout the midwest in the early seventies earned her the title of 'premier stripteuse'. Kitten has thrilled audiences in the best supper clubs throughout the land; earning five-figure salaries, even when burlesque was on the skids. She was voted 'Miss Nude Cosmopolitan' in San Bernardino, California in 1972. Now, the top-heavy beauty is featured at the leading Las Vegas spots as well as the darling of LA's famous 'Other Ball' night club. Russ Meyer sighted her spectacular voluptuousness (43E) at the famed 'Classic Cat', where she was appearing in LA, and signed her for a small part in RM's Up! in 1976. Fan interest was 'fanned' to fever heat, primarily because of her mind-blowing endowments, and Meyer, known for his own personal 'bosom-mania', on and off the set, signed her again, this time to star in Beneath the Valley of the Ultravixens; playing a 'double-breasted' role. Don't miss the unbelievable highlights from Beneath the Valley of the Ultravixens and Up in the latest video sensation, Electric Blue, available through this magazine (see page 54).

'I'm an old fashioned sort of girl really – or at least my values are. I like to make a man work to get into my panties. I don't care whether it's wining and dining me, writing me poetry or just picking some lovely wild flowers, but there's got to be some sort of visible effort been made. But I can guarantee that once I've been conquered, the spoils will be well worth the battle. I may have old fashioned values, but I just love to fuck.' ♣

'I've been taking a lot of stick recently over my name – you've probably heard the record by a group called The Police about a girl who's on the game. All my friends kid me that it was written specially for me, as I'm quite a little raver. But I just tell them I like my sex far too much to endanger my chances of a good screw by charging for it!' ♣
